AWARDS

One grand prize will be awarded to an eligible high school senior in the form of a USF Art & Design Scholarship. Best of show awards will be awarded in the following categories: Painting, Sculpture, Photography, Drawing/Works on Paper, Digital/Other. Winners will be announced at the reception on February 14, 2026. Students must claim their prizes in person at USF's MPAC Art Gallery.

The University of St. Francis Art & Design Scholarship is a four-year renewable scholarship awarded to one student entering a qualified program in the Art & Design Department at USF in the 2026-27 academic year. To be eligible for the grand prize scholarship, students must be high school seniors in 2026 and will be required to upload their portfolio and a one-page statement explaining why they want to major in Art & Design at USF.

PORTFOLIO REVIEW

In addition to the grand prize scholarship, USF also offers a limited number of Art & Design "Talent" Scholarships. Faculty will be on-site during the February 14, 2026 reception to review portfolios of seniors interested in earning one. Preference will be given to students who participate in the portfolio review. Seniors interested in a portfolio review should email mcostello@stfrancis.edu to schedule an appointment. Bring five (5) or more works with you in digital or physical form.

Drop-off, the exhibition, receptions/awards and pick-up will be held at the University of St. Francis MPAC Art Gallery
500 Wilcox Street
Joliet, IL 60435
